

Sentinel world, private observations, and federated active inference

Agents share beliefs about one hidden location; observations and controls remain local

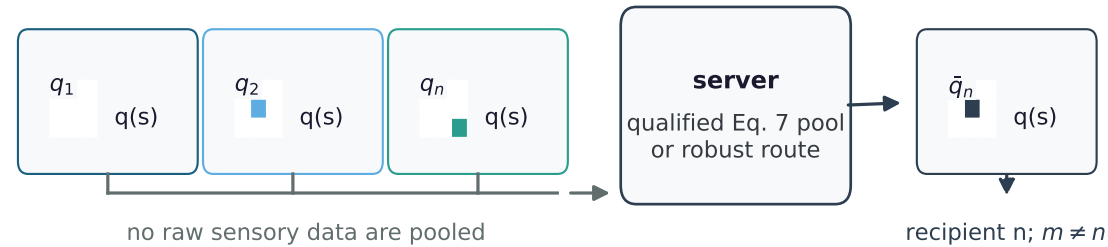

A Shared nine-cell world

Three sentinels see noisy categorical reports of the same hidden location

B One belief-sharing round

Local posteriors are the messages; the return is cavity-excluded

C Active-inference temporal loop

The flat federation uses inference and communication; the moving-world extension also executes B and EFE-guided control

